Caricature artist for your company event

I sit down in the middle of your event and draw your guests, one at a time. People laugh, talk and compare drawings, and everyone goes home with their own portrait, with your logo on the paper, if you like.

HOW IT WORKS

I draw your guests while the party is running

WHERE IT FITS

Three kinds of events, one drawing per guest

At the company party

summer party · anniversary · kickoff · julefrokost

- Colleagues from different departments talk while they wait
- About 5 minutes per guest, nobody has to prepare anything
- Everyone goes home with their own portrait

At the trade fair trade fair · conference · stand

- People stop at the stand to see what is going on
- Five minutes in the chair is five minutes to talk
- Your logo leaves the hall on the paper

At the client event

reception · opening · launch · vernissage

- A gift your guests have not had before
- Drawn while they stand there, home the same evening
- Nobody throws a portrait away

YOUR LOGO ON THE PAPER

The portrait goes home, and your name with it

Send me your logo, and I will print it on the paper before the event.

WHO'S COMING?

I'm Dagmar. I sit down and draw

I'm there among your guests throughout, so I make a point of being easy to have around: I arrive in good time, set up in ten minutes, and talk with them while I draw.

You write with me, and I'm the one who shows up. There's no agency in between.
